The Hendrik Van Kooten family just prior to leaving for America.

These photographs were taken by Alfred Van Steenwyk of Pella in 1954 when he was in the service and was visiting relatives there. The house and barn combination was the home of Cornelia and Hendrik Van Kooten before they emigrated to the United States.

The house and barn made one large brick building as was, and is, customary in the Netherlands. The roof was tile. In the picture of the living portion of the building, one can see one window on the left. Beyond that are four short windows with protruding ledges...that is the barn area. Only a wall separates living quarters from the dairy herd and horses. However, barns are kept very clean. A door in the house opened into the barn. Henry Van Kooten recalls one could hear the animals chewing their food in the quiet of the night, a most comforting sound. He also recalls a time when a cow pushed the house door open and wandered about the house, wetting in the bedroom...much to the dismay of Mother!

The hay loft was over the cattle area. The cows were on one end and the horses in the other. The floors were brick. In the center was a hollow section where they did the threshing...using hand flails. Three people flailed and had to keep accurate rhythm so as not to hit one another.

The house faced south. To the east was the canal and the little stream running adjacent to it. It was here that a neighbor child drowned. Pasture land went to the north and Father's crop land to the west.

The queen's summer palace, Het Loo, was about a mile from the Van Kooten home and very close to the school.

The map that follows is this book compiler's idea of just how the Van Kooten neighborhood might have been. Henry Van Kooten sketched where the different places were and from his sketch, the map developed. It is not drawn to any scale and the Van Kooten house appears much larger than the others because I wished that to be a major focal point!

"Man's life is a fairy tale written by the finger of God."

In the Netherlands, Hendrik van Kooten rented a sizeable farm for that area. The crops were potatoes, sugar beets, turnips, rye and hay. He had twelve or more Holstein dairy cows and delivered milk in town. They had two horses...one used for work and a mare who was delivered of a colt every year.

Putting up hay was mostly hard work with all the family helping. Mother would take the little ones along to the field. The hay was pitched on a wagon and then stacked or put in the barn. They had a walking plow for one horse. Henry Van Kooten, oldest son, remembers seeing neighbors harrowing with a harness over their shoulders pulling a harrow by hand through the field.

The father, Hendrik, had a third grade education but continued to educate himself beyond that by avid reading while herding animals. He carried a book under his hat to enable himself to read while the animals grazed. He met Cornelia, his wife-to-be as they both tended animals in the same or neighboring fields.

Mother was a gracious, refined woman given the temperament of a saint as she raised a family of sixteen children and mourned the loss of an infant.

The children attended school at 't Loo close to the Queen's summer palace. Henry recalls the school children marching, singing and waving flags in a parade to honor Queen Wilhelmina. The Queen stood on the porch and waved to them. Henry finished school through the sixth grade which was as high as the school at 't Loo went.

The Van Kooten family was proud to have a baby girl born on Princess Julianna's first birthday on April 30, 1910. It was an honor and the child was given, as a middle name, the name of the queen! (Jacoba Wilhelmina later chose to change this to Cora Wilma.) She was the infant who a few months after birth was carried aboard the ship that took the family to America. The baby became very ill aboard ship as milk did not agree with her. (Father bought a milk cow as soon as they got to Alton, Iowa and the baby recovered.)

Before leaving Holland, Henrietta was full of mischief (and this did not vanish when she got to the New World!). Henrietta recalls, although she was only 4½ how she and a little friend, Altje Hullman picked many of the blossoms from the Van Kooten potato patch. When Father caught them in the act he lectured on the fact that for every blossom which we had picked, there would be that many potatoes less and with our big family it took lots and lots of potatoes.

Aunt Nellie Van Kooten, Father's sister was a maid and would come to visit us on her bicycle now and then and always had a bag of candy for us. When they saw her coming down the road they all ran to meet her!

Together the parents had decided to emigrate with their children, a decision with which the father in particular struggled. People on his milk route chided him that the family would possibly be lost at sea. Hendrik presented his dilemma to the Lord and received an answer in the affirmative. The burden fell from his shoulders at that point he told his children in later years. He felt the Lord would take care of them.

Henry remembers the sale where relatives came crying, sorry to see them go. Leaving home and family, never easy, became a reality and on July 19, 1910 they went on the ship, "Queen Wilhelmina". The other children remember the sad leaving, too.

Three of the boys and Henrietta stayed at the Hulleman's the last night they were in Holland and they slept on beds in the wall behind curtains. Mrs. Hulleman asked what they would like to eat and Menrietta said she would like to have ten slices of white bread with sugar. (At the Van Kooten house rye bread was served daily with white bread reserved for Sundays.) The three older brothers were embarrassed by Henrietta's request.

The next morning the neighbor Hulleman took the family, at least part of them, to the station and it was told later that Hulleman unloaded all the luggage and the family and never looked back as the parting was just too much for him to stand.

Cornelia remembers her father taking her shopping in Holland at Christmas time when he said she could pick out the doll she liked. Later he took her to have her ears pierced and bought her a lovely pair of rear rings. She liked to go shopping with him!

Often, before going to bed at night, Cornelia recalls, Father would peel an orange for the children, giving each a section. She also remembers the night before they left for America and the day they landed. When she had to go to school she did not want to sit away from family members so the teacher let her sit with her brother, Cornelius for the first two days and then she got along just fine.

The children who were older were responsible for two of the younger ones. Each boy was given a new Dutch-style hat, Henrietta and others recall, and some 'smart alecs' on deck took one of them and threw it in the ocean. Heartbroken, he was promised a new American hat when they landed.

The family traveled third class...at the bottom...but during the day they could be on the upper decks. Mother had the care of the small baby. Henry remembers when they had a table all set for supper on a hot, humid day when someone opened a window. A gust of wind and salt water came through and swept the table clean, the supper was gone and the family soaked!

They landed in New York on July 30, 1910 and saw the Statue of Liberty greeting them. There, as they were detained on the ship, oranges were thrown to the passengers. Father kept catching them all and made other passengers angry until he said, "I have eleven children to share these with and my wife and I would like one, too." The all had a treat of an orange thanks to Father.

From the dock they went to the depot and took a train to Chicago and from there went to Alton, Iowa where they arrived on August 4. A kind family by the name of Jansen had dinner ready for thirteen extra. They also helped them get settled in their new home. Father went to work for the railroad, Henry was hired out to work for a farmer and the older girls found work to help support the family. They were in Alton a year and a half.

Early in March, 1912, the family moved by train to Oskaloosa where a good friend, Evert Plate, had rented a 200 acre farm for them near Lacey. It was quite a task to bring two cows, fifty chickens and furniture from the depot to the farm as the snow was so deep they could not see the fences. Everett Van Kooten was born on this farm.

A move later was to New Sharon on Highway 63 where Nellie made her appearance as an addition to the family. Paul was born on the farm between Lacey and New Sharon and Pauline and Albert were born near Tracy. Later there was a move to Lynnville and later Searsboro. They went to a farm in Oskaloosa and then retired to town where their beloved mother left to live with her Lord. Father lived with his children for periods of time and joined his wife in their heavenly home five years later.

Cornelia Schut and Hendrik Van Kooten are buried in the cemetery in Sully, Iowa. "...the time came...to enter into their full reward...They are blest indeed, for now they shall rest from all their toils and trials; for their good deeds follow them to heaven! " (Paraphrased from The Living New Testament)

This book was compiled to the best of my ability with the hopes that there be no errors. However, there being so many names, dates and places, mistakes probably were made. None were intentional and all are regretted.

I scan the old, yellowing photographs of my ancestors For an answer to the question of who I am.

I search for a hint as to where I got My nose, My eyebrows, My ears.

My ancestors were farm people, The photographs record their big, strong hands And their sober, careworn faces.

I stand
And look out the windows and doorways
As my grandmother once did.
But now the house is empty,
The doors are missing,
The glass broken.
Here people toiled,
And lived,
And dreamed;
The people who gave me life;
The people without whom
I never would have been.

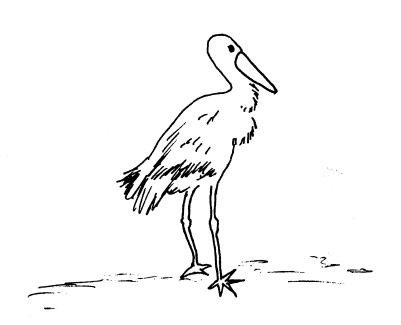

I stand
And look out across the fallow field
Where my grandfather's house once stood.
I stand
And look
And feel a sense of loss.

Most of you probably know how it was that names were given in the Netherlands (and other European countries) before the Napoleonic Period. The system was called patronymica...surnames were not used. Instead, only given names were given and the second name was that of the father (such as Hendrik the son of Hendrik would become Hendrik Hendrikszoon (Hendrik's son) and was then shortened to Hendrik Hendriks. This method was used for both male and female children and was, of course, as populations increased, confursing to say the least. Orders were issued by Napoleon that all should take a surname and thus it was that many interesting names developed. Van Kooten had its origin from a person from the village of Kooten...thus from Kooten became van Kooten. In this country we capitalize the Van. Other names were derived from occupations or physical characteristics.

By 1810 surnames were used in the Netherlands although the father's first name was usually the son or daughters "middle" name as we now think of it. Many immigrants continued this for several generations in the new country.

VAN KOOTEN

It is suggested that to really understand the following lineage that you take the sheet of the family tree and follow along with it. All of the material is official from registers in the Netherlands.

Hendrik Van Kooten and his wife Kornelia (also spelled with C) emigrated to the United States in the summer of 1910 with eleven children. Five more were born as U.S. citizens after the family's arrival. Hendrik was born January 26, 1898. The church register in Apeldoorn says January 27 but that is probably the day he was taken to the church for baptism as was custom. His father was a labourer, also named Hendrik, who was born in Ede, province of Gelderland. The elder Hendrik was born August 19, 1823 and had been a widower before marrying Teunisje van Voorst on December 15, 1866. (His first wife, Albertje van Dam, had died in Beekbergen, near Apeldoorn, on November 26, 1865.)

The elder Hendrik's father was Teunis van Kooten, born in Ede, died in Apeldoorn September 11, 1868. He'd also lived in Hoender-loo, now part of Apeldoorn and it was there he married Gerritje Jansen van den Heuvel who died before 1866.

Teunisje van Voorst was born at Apeldoorn April 2, 1844 to parents named Hendrik Van Voorst (born circa 1802 in Beekbergen and died May 13, 1854 in Apeldoorn) and Petronella (Peitertje) Jansen who was born in the same place July 16, 1799 and died there June 20,1871.

Hendrik van Voorst's parents were Hendrik Dirk van Voorst, born November 6, 1777 and Fenneke Brinkhorst born February 16, 1777. Hendriks grandfather was also a Hendrik van Voorst. Fenneke's parents were Hendrik Brinkhorst and Teunisje Derks.

The father of Petronella (Pietertje) is unknown. Her mother was Janna Jans, unmarried daughter of Jan.

Derk Hendrik van Voorst, the great-great grandfather of the emigrant Hendrik van Kooten, married Elisabeth Capel who was baptized in Beekbergen March 15, 1744 and died there May 4, 1807. (Derk Hendrik's father was Hendrik.)

It is at this point that the Capel line of the van Kootens now joins a Schut line that goes back to the very late 1400's. It was interesting to research. The genealogist in the Netherlands is sure there is a relationship with Kornelia Schut's line but as yet has not found the connecting link. You will wish to look at the sheets from a book published in the Netherlands about the mills and millers in the Apeldoorn region. This family line was well-known and well-to-do. Although this book is in Dutch, one can pick out the family names etc. Those of you who read Dutch may translate for those who cannot. Also notice the deed from the 1600's signed by ancestors at the time of the sale of a mill. The script is impossible for the most part to read but one can pick out the names and signatures.

Elizabeth CAPEL was the daughter of BEREND HENDRIKS CAPEL and was born circa 1706 in Loenen. She died June 11, 1778 in Beekbergen.

Berend Capel was the miller of the "Gasthuismolen" (the hospital mill) in Beekbergen. He was also the 'holtrichter' (judge). In 1768 he was the owner of a papermill near Apeldoorn. The mills he owned were driven by water from the brooks and this water was also used for paper making. Because of the clearness of the water, the paper was of high quality and was used in making paper money for the government.

Berend Capel was married to Jacobje Jans Schut, a widow of Egbert Adolfs Ickman who had also been a miller at the Gasthuismolen.

Jacobje was born circa 1706 and died at Beekbergen March 15, 1781.

In the Capel line, Berend was the son of Hendrik Pieters Capel who died in Loenen before 1750 where he was an innkeeper in the inn known as "de Capelle" (The Butterfly). He is listed as owner from 1728 to 1747. He was also the churchwarden which meant he was in charge of the finances of the church, a most honourable position reserved for the prominent church members.

Hendrik Capel married Elisabeth Speckling from Warnsveld.
Hendrik's father, Pieter, was born circa 1640 and died at fiftyseven years in 1697. He died at his inn.

Elisabeth's father was Berent Speckling, born at Warnsveld where he died before January 30, 1701. Birth was circa 1640 it is assumed.

SCHUT Jacobje Jans Schut (Capel) was born to Jan Aart Joachim Schut and his wife Luitje Hendriks Amersfoort. They were owners of Oude Molen (OLD MILL) and made highly-rated paper in Ugchelen.

Jan Aart Joachim Schut's father was Joachem Daniels Schut who in the 1698 records was papermaker at Oude Molen. The grandfather was Daniel Jacobs Schut and the great-grandfather was Jacob Jacobs Schut who died August 5, 1652. He had been married to Jenneken Reinders. (The signature of this woman and the mark of her husband can be seen on the old document written in script)

Jacob Jacobs, the great-great grandfather of Jan Aart was Jacob Lucas, son of Lucas and he married Geertje Dirks Schut was still living in 1640 when she married a second time. Geertjes father was Dirk Schut.

Jenneken Reinders' father was Reinder Reinders, innkeeper and churchwarden in Beekbergen. He was born in 1563 and died August 19, 1627. He had probably heard about a religious group called Pilgrims leaving Dutch soil to go to the New World! From his name we know he was the son of Reinder who was born circa 1540. Reinder the elder was married to Mary Arndts. She was the daughter of Arnt Jacobs. Arnt's mother was Hille. Arnt's father was named Jacob and was living in the last few years of the 1400's. This is quite a heritage to be able to trace!

Cornelia Schut

I Cornelia was born in Apeldoorn, prevince of Gelderland, the Netherlands. She was born March 22, 1876. Her marriage to Hendrik Van Kooten was en August 18, 1894 and they became the parents of seventeen children, twelve born in the Netherlands and five more in the United States. One son died as an infant in Holland.

Cornelia died February 9, 1953 a bit before her seventy-seventh birthday.

Cornelia's parents were Cornelis Schut and Rikje van den Braak.

Cornelis (sometimes found spelled with a K) was born May 8, 1837 in Beekbergen/Apeldoorn area. Rikje was born in Renswoude, prevince of Utrecht on May 23, 1849. They were married in Apeldoorn February 13,

III The father and mother of Kornelis Schut were Reijer Schut, a farmhand, born in Arnhem April 25, 1798 and Cornelia Pleeg born in Beekbergen June 12, 1801. They were married in Apeldoorn February 15, 1823.

Rikje van den Braak's parents were Gerrit Wouters van den Braak born May 31, 1775 and Woutertje Klomp born April 3, 1808. Woutertje had been born in Garderen near Barneveld in Gelderland. She and her husband were farmers living in Beekbergen in 1869 census. Woutertje died in Apeldoorn October 10, 1878 in the house of her son-in-law, Kornelis Schut.

Beekbergen March 8, 1733.

The parents of Reijer Schut were Willem Reijers Schut and his wife Christina Klomps who was born in Bredevoort...on February 11, 1767. Willem and Christina were married in Arnhem May 14, 1797. Three years later, September 23, 1800, Willem died.
On October 17, 1802 Christina married a second time, this time to Reint Janssen who was the son of Lucas Janssen and his wife Japikje.

Christina's father was Jan Willem Klomps baptized July 1, 1736 and married to Jenneke Koleweij at Bredevoort on June 25, 1764. She was the daughter of Frerik Kollerweijborn in Varsdeveld. Jan Willem's father was Berent Klomps. Barent was the son of Willem. Willem Klomp was born in Palten on March 25, 1713 and of his wife who was Henderskin Wensink. Barent was married to Christina Janna Slotboom on April 26, 1734. She was the daughter of Jan Slotboom.

Cornelia Ploeg's parents were Teunis Everts Ploeg, born in Apeldoorn March 24, 1758 and Arendje Everts Dibbets born July 11, 1772. He was also married to Cornelia Gerrits. Arendje died June 2, 1809 when Cornelia was eight years of age. Arendje's father, Everd Dibbets was born Renkum and married at Beekbergen on January 15, 1753. His wife was Bartje Lucas born Woutertje Klomps parents were Rik Klomp and Maria Top. They married May 21, 1802. Both were born in Garderen. Rik Klomps father was Derk and Maria's father was Gerrit. Derk Hendrikson, the father of Rik Klomp was born in Essen (Garderen) where on September 5, 1771 he married Lijsje Rijks born at Essen.

Maria's father, Gerrit (Geurt) Hendrickson was the son of Hendrik. Gerrit was born at Essen, He married in Garderen on October 23, 1768. His wife was Lubbertje born in Lunteren.

The parents of Teunis Ploeg were Evert Melis Ploeg and Willempje Hendrix. Evert was born in Apeldoorn July 21, 1727 where he also died on January 22, 1758. Apeldoorn was the town where Willempje died on February 16, 1759.

Evert Melis Ploeg's father was Melis, born February 27, 1681. His mother was Geunisje Gerrits. Melis was the son of Lambert Gosens and Lambert's father was named Gosen. Teunisje's father was Gerrit.

Lambert Gosens was married to Geertje, Melis Jacobs daughter.

Melis was the husband of Hebeltje Everts. Melis Jacobs was the son of Jacob.

Hebeltje was the daughter of Evert Kersten and grand daughter of Kerst Everts. Her great grandfather was named Evert.

Note: It will help clarify the lineage if you take the sheet of the family "tree" out and look at these sheets together.

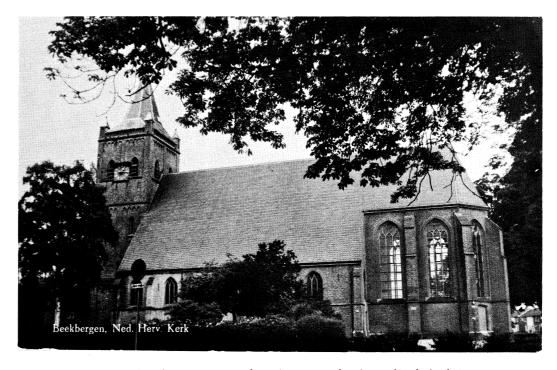

All the above material is obtained from the official registers in the provincial capitals in the Netherlands by genealogist Kees Molendijk.

A curiosity are the two gravestones in the church from Reinder Reinders, and of Marten Orges the second husband of Geertje Dircks Schut.

Een andere bezienswaardigheid vormen de beide grafstenen in de vloer van het koor. Eén daarvan is voor de op 19 augustus 1627 overleden kerkmeester Reinder Reinders. Op de andere zerk lezen we het opschrift: "Anno 1626 den 9 september is in de Here Gherust Meister Marten Orges den olsten pappyere maecker ghewest in Gelderlandt".

de Hervormde Kerk in Beekbergen foundations go back to the Middle Ages (15th. Century.)

De nieuwe vloer kreeg ongeveer het niveau van de vloer, die de kerk in de 15e eeuw kreeg, toen hij tot de huidige driebeuk werd verbouwd.

Berend Hendriks CAPEL, born Loenen, died Beekbergen 11-06-1778. He was miller on the "Gasthuismolen" in Beekbergen and "holtrichter" (=judge). In 1768 he was owner of a papermill. In the Reformed Church in Beekbergen were 3 out of 4 copper chandeliers in 1777 given by Berent CAPEL and Gerrit Harms BRINK. On each lustre is a small plate with inscription:

On page 158 and 159 of Hardonk: Koornmullenaers.... is told that in the Ruitersmolen, which was owned by Mr. Marten Orges the 2nd husband of Geertje Dirks Schut, nr. 1633, was a stained-glass window of Marten Orges on horseback, for he was always riding to his children and other mills in the vicinity. If this story is true, cannot be said, but so one thinks that the mill got his name. Ruiter = rider, horseman.

DE APELDOORNSE KORENMOLENS

Laar het wordt hoog tijd, dat we ons bezighouden met de korenwatermolens in het nbt Apeldoorn en iets over hun geschiedenis gaan mededelen. We komen daarbij het erst in het kerspel Beekbergen en wel bij de molen, die het vroegst in de historie van nze plaats vermeld wordt.

e Gasthuismolen te Beekbergen (kaart I nr. 40)

e oudst genoemde meelmolen in het ambt Apeldoorn is de later zo bekende Gasthuisolen, Molenvaart 41, Beekbergen. Deze molen, waarover gesproken wordt in de kening 1) betreffende het graafschap Gelre over 1294/95, was in die tijd een dwangolen van de Gelderse graaf Reinald I en de ingezetenen van Beekbergen waren erplicht daar hun graan te laten malen. In de rentmeestersrekening van de Veluwe ver $1335/36^2$) lezen we evencens van de molen, gelegen te Voshuisen. Voshuisen as een buurt in de omgeving van de molen, de naam komt nog voor in 1649^{3}) en is ans vastgelegd in de benaming van een weg daar ter plaatse. In genoemd stuk heeft rentmeester het over de "molendino aquatico apud Voshuisen in parochia Begbergen c anno nihil". Deze laatste woorden duiden er op, dat de toenmalige graaf Reinald II dat jaar geen inkomsten trok uit het maalbedrijf. Vermoedelijk heef hij de molen vanege een schuld tijdelijk in pand moeten geven of de opbrengst voor bewezen diensten n een gunsteling geschonken.

ertog Willem van Gulik geeft de molen in 1381 in erfpacht 4) aan Johan Mompelier n Overhagen, waarbij "die van Beggebergen anders nergent malen en soelen dan op se moelen". Er wordt hier nog eens extra de nadruk gelegd op de molendwang. Even rder staat: "uitgenommen die van Loenen". De ingezetenen van Loenen behoefden s niet in Beekbergen te laten malen. In de hertogelijke rekeningen van 1410 – 1433 ordt de molen wel vermeld, doch er zijn steeds geen pachtopbrengsten verantwoord. rmoedelijk is de molen na 1433 in particulier bezit gekomen, want in een scheiding n goederen (4 juli 1487) tussen Jacob ten Have ter ene en de gebroeders Albert en nt anderzijds wordt de watermolen in het kerspel Beekbergen, in de buurschap eren, toegewezen aan Albert en Arnt. 5)

b 27 oktober 1533 verkopen Mechteld ten Have, Ryck van Heerd met diens vrouw *NOTF argareta en Derck Jacobsz met diens echtgenote Jutte een watermolen met toebehoh, gelegen in het ambt Apeldoorn in het kerspel Beekbergen, "mitten gemael ind ge- Name thticheijt . . . invoorts mitten gehelen Waeter daertoe gehoerende, boven ind qiven heden, mit dijck, dam ind medeganck" aan het St. Petersgasthuis te Arnhem. Vanar komt de naam "Gasthuismolen", een benaming die tot op heden bewaard is bleven. Bijna twee jaren later (7 januari 1535) lezen we in een oorspronkelijk stuk, orzien van de ondertekening en het zegel van hertog Karel van Gelre (1492 – 1538), t deze op genoemde datum de verkoop bekrachtigt van dezelfde molen aan hetzelfde sthuis. Maar nu zijn het heel andere personen, namelijk Lutgert ten Have en haar nderen, die bij de verkoop van de molen betrokken zijn! Een zeer vreemde gehiedenis, waar we hier niet verder op in kunnen gaan. Er staan in het stuk nog een (medns ar dingen, die onze aandacht vragen. De hertog bepaalt, dat niemand anders op hetfde water in hetzelfde kerspel waterkorenmolens mag stichten. Verder schenkt hij vergunning aan het Gasthuis om in de nabijheid van de korenmolen een volmolen te leggen, waarop de ingezetenen van Beekbergen hun docken kunnen laten vollen tegen vastgesteld tarief. Deze volmolen komen we later tegen bij de komst van de papiermakerij in Beekbergen. Op de geschiedenis der Apeldoornse volmolens gaan we straks uitvoerig in.

In 1603 loopt het met de molenaar Lubbert Berntz van de Gasthuismolen helemaal niet best af. Hij heeft in een ongeoorloofde verhouding geleefd met de stiefdochter Naele en wordt 6 oktober 1603 door het Hof veroordeeld "om mit den sweerden" (met het zwaard) te worden geëxecuteerd, anderen tot afschrikwekkend voorbeeld. 7) Een aantal jaren later (1619) ontstaat er een proces tussen jonker Dirk van Essen en de huismeesters van het Gasthuis. Van Essen heeft aan de Rekenkamer verzocht "op de Wenckemer weyer (Winkewijert) in Engelander merck" in het kerspel Beekbergen, een korenmolen te mogen leggen. Het Gasthuis beroept zich op de brief van hertog Karel uit 1535 en krijgt gelijk, een korenmolen mag daar niet gesticht worden. In 1626 8) verpachten de huismeesters de Gasthuismolen voor 6 jaar aan Cornelis Egberts en diens erfgenamen. De pacht gaat 1 mei 1627 in en bedraagt 250 gulden per jaar. Molenaar Egberts moet "d'Inwoonderen van Begbergen int maelen van hair koirn" voor laten gaan boven "andere vrembde offte uijtheijmschen". Bij een latere (12 januari 1633) verpachting 9) aan Cornelis Egberts blijkt de pacht te zijn verhoogd tot 400 gulden per jaar. Op 27 december 1681 10) komt de zoon van Cornelis Egberts, Egbert Cornelissen, als pachter op de Gasthuismolen. Weer is de pacht hoger geworden, 460 gulden per jaar. Bovendien moet de nieuwe molenaar nog zes paar hoenders leveren "te weten voor die Huismeesteren, Secretaris en Rentmeester ieder een paer". De heren waren blijkbaar niet afkerig van een gebraden kippeboutje. Op 2 oktober 1695 11) mag de molenaar een "nieuwen vijftienden meulensteen" kopen te Deventer "ter somme van één hondert gulden".

In 1742 wordt Berend Capel als molenaar genoemd; zijn vrouw Jacobje Jansen Schut vinden we vermeld in 1747.

De mulder Berent Cappel, die holtrigter is van de Lierdermark, en zijn huisvrouw Jacobie Jansze Schut schenken in 1777 een tweetal thans nog aanwezige fraaie koperen kronen aan de kerk van Beekbergen. Capel is nog tot 1779 molenaar, zijn opvolger wordt Derk I Jkman, die in 1801 dit beroep eveneens uitoefent.

Vanaf zijn stichting vóór 1294 is de Gasthuismolen steeds als waterkorenmolen in werking gebleven. Het valt daarom ten zeerste te betreuren, dat het rad van deze vroegst bekende molen in onze gemeente al omstreeks 1951 buiten werking is gesteld en onherroepelijk zijn ondergang tegemoet gaat. In het voormalige molengebouw is nu een metaalwarenbedrijf gevestigd. Het binnenwerk van de vroegere korenmolen, de twee steenkoppels inbegrepen, was in 1954 nog geheel aanwezig.

De Wenumer Saatmolen (kaart 1 nr. 4)

Misschien moeten we een even somber geluid laten horen over de watermolen te Wenum. Deze "Wenumer Saatmolen", nu bekend als de korenmolen van Van Bree, was tot voor kort de enige nog in werking zijnde waterkorenmolen binnen onze gemeente. Tal van ingezetenen kennen deze molen, die zo mooi gelegen is beneden de grote molenwijer aan de Oude Zwolseweg.

De molen te Wenum komt het eerst voor in de staat 12) der bezittingen van Herbertus van Putten over 1313. Van Herbertus is maar weinig bekend, wel bezat deze man heel wat goederen. We lezen in de staat over een "molandinum in Wenume", waarvoor Laten we maar eens de Mettaweg te Ugchelen inslaan waar al gauw het huis "Prinsenberg" bereikt wordt, gelegen op de splitsing Mettaweg-Van Heeckerensweg. We blijven echter op de Mettaweg; gaan even een stukje bos door en zien dan plotseling de vroegere enk van Ugchelen voor ons liggen. De weg, waarop we staan, komt op de kaart van Verbeek voor als "den Apeldoornsen of plagh wegh" en is nu nog niet veel beter dan een plaggenweg. Deze "plagh wegh" vormt een overblijfsel van de oorspronkelijke oude weg, die van de buurschap Ugchelen naar Apeldoorn leidde. Links in de verte ligt het vroeger bezit van het St. Petersgasthuis, thans het landbouwbedrijf van Melissen. Op de achtergrond – tussen het bos en de bouwlanden – loopt de prachtige begroeide enkwal, die daar nog geheel intact is gebleven. De sprengen van het Voorslop zijn op de kaart niet ingetekend, het terrein wordt aangeduid met "de Sprengen". Een perceel grond ten westen van dit sprengengebied herkennen we als de Cantharel met omgeving. De tegenwoordige van Goldsteinlaan heet in 1740 "Den Bekbergsen Wegh".

Het St. Petersgasthuis en het Burgerweeshuis te Arnhem bezaten ieder een boerderij in de Ugchelsemark. Het gasthuis was er eigenaar van het eerder genoemde goed St. Peter, binnen de enk gelegen. Reeds in de eerste helft der 16e eeuw komt het gasthuis door aankoop in het bezit van goederen binnen het ambt Apeldoorn o.a. in Beekbergen (Gasthuismolen) en eveneens in de buurschap Ugchelen. Zoals we al zagen, kocht in 1566 het St. Petersgasthuis een "saelweer" (= grond met huis) in Ugchelen, waarbij inbegrepen was een stuk land "streckende aan die beeck".

Aan het Burgerweeshuis behoorde de "Wezenhof", die buiten de eigenlijke enk lag, waar nu het huis Van Golsteinlaan 26 staat. Wel komt de naam Wezenhof tegenwoordig voor op een ander huis daar in de buurt, doch dit ligt helemaal niet op de plek, waar eens de Wezenhof stond. Deze bezittingen gaven ieder der bovengenoemde instellingen recht op een vol deel in de Ugchelse mark, die uit 5 delen bestond. Vandaar dat we geregeld Arnhemmers aantreffen onder de geërfden van de mark van Ugchelen.

Het is vooral te danken aan de stichting der papiermolens (Altena, Windemolen, Bazemolen en Steenbeek), dat in Ugchelen nieuwe centra van bewoning zijn ontstaan en de bevolking zich heeft verplaatst en uitgebreid. Ugchelen groeide daardoor uit tot een echte papiermakersgemeenschap.

De naam Ugchelen komt het eerst voor in een schattinglijst van ca. 1326, waarin we lezen van een zekere Metta van Ugchelen. Naar deze vrouw, over wie verder niets meer vermeld wordt, is de Mettaweg genoemd.

DE PAPIERMOLENS IN DE LIERDERMARK TE BEEKBERGEN

De Tuilekensmolen (kaart I nr. 38)

De geschiedenis van deze molen brengt ons in aanraking met (Marten Orges, die) – evenals zijn kinderen Daniel en Paul Martens en zijn stiefzoon Jacob Jacobs – een voorname rol heeft gespeeld in het papierbedrijf binnen het ambt Apeldoorn. Over zijn afkomst is tot op heden niets bekend. Voor het eerst komen we hem in 1601 tegen te Beekbergen. Op 22 februari van dat jaar verpachten de huismeesters van het St. Petersgasthuis te Arnhem hun volmolen op de Beekbergerbeek (kaart I nr. 38) voor 12 jaar aan Marten Orges "tot een papieren meulen". Orges moet ieder jaar op Petri (22 febr.) een pachtsom geven van 25 daalder. Bij "quade betaelinge" zal men hem echter van de molen "mogen ontsetten sonder eenich tegenseggen". De huismeesters zullen de molen laten vertimmeren en ook een "camerken daerin setten met een schoorsteen op haere costen". Het molenwerk – en al wat daarbij hoort – moet de pachter daarentegen zelf betalen "ende voorts alles zowel het huys als anders" goed onderhouden tot aan het einde der 12 pachtjaren.

De hier vermelde volmolen is dezelfde, waarvoor hertog Karel van Gelre in 1535 vergunning tot het stichten had gegeven. Over de papiermolen van Marten Orges horen we – behalve omstreeks 1613 – pas weer in een proces, dat in 1625 tussen Orges en het Gasthuis gevoerd wordt voor het Hof van Gelderland. Hieruit blijkt, dat Marten Orges van de huismeesters een grote en een kleine molen heeft gepacht en een jaar met de pachtbetaling ten achter is. Hij wordt veroordeeld om te komen "in naerde handelunge van nieuwen pacht" of de onkosten te vergoeden en de grote molen te verlaten. De grote molen is de papiermolen van 1601 en de kleine molen moet de daar beneden in 1606 gestichte molen (nr. 39) zijn geweest, waarover we straks meer zullen vertellen.

Marten Orges is op 9 september 1626 overleden. Op zijn grafzerk in de Ned. Herv. Kerk te Beekbergen bevindt zich een drietal figuren die misschien met zijn weduwe en met zijn beide zoons Paul en Daniel Martens te maken hebben. Het grafschrift op de zerk luidt: "anno 1626 den 9 september is inde Here gherust Meister Marten Orges, den olsten pappyeremaecker ghewest in Gelderlandt." Bij zijn overlijden moet hij de oudste der toenmalige Gelderse papiermakers zijn geweest. Zoals we in het voorafgaande zagen, was hij beslist niet de eerste. Die eer komt aan Hans van Aelst toe.

Uit een akte van 1618 blijkt, dat de ene zoon van Orges — Daniel Martens — niet kan schrijven maar in plaats van een handtekening een merk gebruikt, waarvan varianten voorkomen op twee latere akten (uit 1626 en 1629). Het merk uit 1629 is ongeveer gelijk aan de ene figuur beneden op de grafzerk. Ook "Geerken Schut, die wed frou van zalige meyster Marten Orges", was de schrijfkunst niet machtig en tekende in 1629 met haar huismerk, dat een handboog voorstelt. Deze handboog, die dus niets met Orges zelf te maken had, vinden we op de zerk naast het merk van haar zoon Daniel. De bovenste figuur zou dan moeten duiden op de andere zoon Paul. Het is waarschijnlijk dat op de grafzerk de initialen staan van de echtgenote en beide kinderen van Orges, doch volkomen zekerheid bestaat hierover niet.

De handboog moet in verband staan met de naam Schut. Deze benaming komt in Gelder-

... dit is het merck van Geerken Schuts die wedfrou van zalige meijster Marten Orges (1629) land reeds voor in 1450. Schutten zijn in de 14e eeuw krijgsknechten te Arnhem. Tegenwoordig wordt een jachtopziener nog wel "schut" genoemd. Een akte van 20 juli 1637 laat ons zien, dat Marten Orges en Geertie Schutten on 18 maart 1611 aangekocht hadden een herengoed in het kerspel Beekbergen, genaamd Boenincx Erve. Dit goed komt onder de benaming Beuninck- of Beuninks erf al voor in een Gaakorenregister uit 1488. In 1637 draagt Geertie Schut het Boenincx goed over aan haar kinderen Jacob Jacobs en Pouwel Martens "dat sy beyde even nae daertoe gestelt mochten worden." HARTIN Het Beuninksgoed vinden we in 1672 op naam staan van de erfgenamen van Paul Martens en Daniel Jacobs. Geertje Schut was eerst gehuwd geweest met Jacob Lucas. Uit deze echtverbintenis was de zoon Jacob Jacobs geboren. Later hertrouwde zij met Marten Orges; uit dit huwelijk stammen de twee zoons Daniel en Paul, die dus stiefbroeders waren van Jacob Jacobs.

Behalve het Boenincxgoed behoorde ook het Voortakkers- of Buurmanserve te Beekbergen aan Marten Orges. Het stond in 1672 gedeeltelijk op naam van Orges' kleinzoon Daniel Pauls, papiermaker in "Klyn Hattem". Eén der 17 delen in de Lierder-

De op 25 september 1724 genoemde "welgelegen pampiere molen" met toebehoren wordt op die datum voor de tijd van 12 jaar voor de ene helft verpandschapt aan Claes Schuerinck en diens vrouw Geertjen Henriex en voor de andere helft aan Pouwel Jansen Schut tegen een som van f 3700. Pouwel Jansen Schut staat in het stuk als "Jonkman" te boek en blijkt in 1724 dus ongehuwd te zijn.

In 1742 zit Reynder Luytjes op de molen van Willen Tulleken, waarvan Claes Schuirinck en Paul Jansen Schut ieder 1/3 deel in eigendom hebben. Reyner Luytjes is gehuwd met Jacomina Bartholds. Ze hebben in 1747 vier knechts, twee meiden en één kind. Later (1760) vinden we er Reynder en Gieliam Luitjes genoemd op Tullekensmolen. A. W. Krepel en W. Dijkhuizen zijn in 1796 eigenaars van de papiermolen, die door Peter van Asselt wordt gebruikt. Twee jaar later zitten op de Tullekensmolens Jacobus Schut, die de leeftijd heeft van 32 jaar en 2 kinderen bezit; en de ongehuwde 24-jarige Berend Luitjes. Schut maakt in 1808 twee soorten papier.

Volgens Gunning zouden de molens omstreeks 1812 onbewoond zijn. In de 19e eeuw vinden we Marten van Delden en Braakman als papiermakers op Tullekensmolens, daarna Daan Dijkgraaf, gehuwd met Jantje van Delden. Beide molens branden af, doch men bouwt maar één molen op, die later omgezet wordt in de wasserij "Tullekensmolen". Gelukkig heeft dit bedrijf toen de oude naam in ere gehouden. Het tegenover de wasserij gelegen oude papiermakershuis "de Kikvorschenbrink" geheten, is vóór 1940 door verbouwing geheel verknoeid. De Wasserij "Tullekensmolen" is als zodanig niet meer in werking.

De Ruitersmolen (kaart 1 nr. 39)

Op een holtspraak van 4 juni 1606 verpachten de geërfden van Lierdermark voor de tijd van 12 jaar aan Marten Orges een plaats of stede voor een papiermolen. Het gaat hier dus om een nieuwe molen. Orges moet — behalve de pacht van 18 daalders aan de mark — ook nog 2 daalders per jaar betalen aan het St. Petersgasthuis, voor welk bedrag de geërfden het water of de beek voor de molen van de huismeesters "in pacht hebben genaemen". Tot dit laatste was het Gasthuis echter niet gerechtigd.

Uit de geschiedenis van de Tullekensmolen hebben we reeds vernomen, dat het St. Petersgasthuis in 1625 een proces voert tegen Marten Orges over de pacht van een grote en kleine molen op de Beekbergensebeek. Orges wordt veroordeeld om te komen tot een nieuwe regeling van de pacht of anders de grote molen te verlaten. Aangaande de kleine molen luidt de uitspraak, dat hij het water daarvan dient "te verlaten die schutten (schotten of stuwen) op te nemen ende 't voorss. waeter synen vryen cours te laeten". Hierdoor komt de kleine molen buiten werking en vervalt meer en meer. Straks zullen we zien, dat het molentje niet wordt afgebroken. Voor het Gasthuis zelf heeft de zaak ook nog een staartje. Want naar aanleiding van het proces van 1625 komt het twee jaar later (10 december 1627) tot een rechtsgeding tussen het Hof en het St. Petersgasthuis. Want intussen was het Hof gebleken, dat de huismeesters destijds wel het water van de kleine molen via de mark aan Orges hadden verpacht, doch daartoe niet bevoegd waren. In de uitspraak wordt dan ook bepaald, dat St. Peter alleen het recht heeft op het beekwater voor zijn koren- en volmolen, doch het verdere water van de beek niet mag verpachten ten behoeve van andere molens.

Kort na dit proces krijgen de weduwe en kinderen van Marten Orges in 1629 van de rekenkamer de waterpacht ¹¹⁵) van de beek "daerop een klein pampier-moelen gelacht is". Hiermede is het molentje bedoeld, dat Orges in 1606 heeft laten timmeren en in het proces van 1625 wordt genoemd en dat later de Ruitersmolen zal heten. Want de erfpacht van de Ruitersmolen – afgekocht in 1906 – was gevestigd bij akte van 27 januari 1629. Ook volgens de overlevering is de molen van Marten Orges geweest en moet de naam in enig verband staan met deze papiermaker. Mr. Marten zou vanuit zijn woning steeds te paard zijn eigen molens en die van zijn kinderen bezocht hebben. In zijn huis – aldus het verhaal – bevond zich een deur, waarin een gebrandschilderd raam met een voorstelling van Marten Orges te paard. Men brengt dan de naam Ruitersmolen in verband met de ruiter Marten Orges. Hoeveel waarheid in deze mondeling overgeleverde geschiedenis schuilt, valt niet na te gaan.

Op 24 januari 1629 – drie dagen voor het verkrijgen van de waterpacht – had de rekenkamer aan de weduwe en kinderen van Marten Orges consent verleend voor "een klein pampiermoelen vorhen bij 't leven van denselven Marten Orges geleijt und doen timmeren op seecker Beecke tot Begbergen int Ampt van Apeldoorn, die deur het stilstaen vervallen, ende nu gern weder souden toerusten."

Uit de nogal uitvoerige akte van consent vernemen we "hoe dat die weduwe und kinderen van za. Marten Orges ter cameren bij supplicatie hebben toe kennen gegeven, dat haer voorss man und Vader op seecker Beecke tot Begbergen . . . had doen timmeren een clein pampier moelen", waarvoor hij – ten aanzien van het water – een zeker bedrag moest geven aan de huismeesters van het St. Petersgasthuis te Arnhem "ende sulcx voer enige Jaeren". Na afloop van deze termijn wilden de huismeesters met Orges geen nieuwe pachtovereenkomst aangaan "waer aver den voorss. moelen een tijtlanck moiste stilstaen". Naderhand was bij sententie van het Hof echter bepaald, dat het water niet het Gasthuis maar "den Heer competierden".

Geertie Schut, de weduwe van Marten Orges, benevens haar kinderen Daniel en Paul - van zins zijnde de vervallen molen "weder toe te rusten" - wenden zich nu tot de rekenkamer om "in billicke compositie wegen desselver waters te moegen kommen". De kamer verwijst hen naar het Hof en deze instantie laat in de kerken van Apeldoorn en Beekbergen op drie zondagen - telkens om de veertien dagen - allen oproepen, die tegen het leggen van "desen moelen" bezwaar maken. Slechts de huismeesters van het Gasthuis dienen een protest in tegen het opnieuw in gebruik stellen, doch bij uitspraak van het Hof van 12 januari 1629 wordt gezegd, dat "d'opposanten haer interesse bij 't leggen van den voorss. moelen niet genoch en hadden bewesen". Het Hof staat de aanvragers toe "denselven moelen te voltrecken, mits stellende volgens gedaene presentatie genoechsame cautie" voor alle schade en overlast, die het Gasthuis te eniger tijd van de kleine molen mocht kunnen lijden. Indien zulks het geval blijkt te zijn, zal men het molentje moeten afbreken. Voor de prompte naleving stellen Geertje Schut en haar kinderen als borgen Arndt Claessen en Henrick Gerrits. Nadat aan alle formaliteiten is voldaan, sluit de rekenkamer met een der zoons van Orges "alsz last hebbende van d'anderen", en geassisteerd door Doktor Gerhard van Staverden, het akkoord. Hierin wordt bepaald dat de familie Orges voor "den gelachten moelen, die sij nu weder sullen moegen reparieren um alleen daerop pampier 't maecken wegen idt recht vant water . . . jaerlicx und alle jaer betaelen sullen vier ponden tot XL groten vlems 't pont". Wanneer meer dan één rad "aende voorss. moelen gehangen worde" dienen de pachters "naer advenant" een hoger bedrag te geven. Aan het slot lezen we, dat een ieder "de wed. mit hare kinderen ende oeren erven de voerseijde pampiermolen rustelick ende vredelick" zal laten "genieten".

In 1648 is Jan van Amersfoort eigenaar van een "huis ende pampiermolen van 4 backen", later wordt Hendrik Jansen van Amersfoort als bezitter genoemd. De 4 baks waterpapiermolen "van oudts genaemt de Ruytermolen" behoort in 1735 aan Willem Jansen (Beeckhuys), gehuwd met Annetje Abrahams Westenenck, door hem aangekocht van de erfgenamen van Henrick Janssen van Amersfoort. In 1742 liggen er beken en sprengen te onderhouden en er is dan ook nooit door hen een cent aan ten koste gelegd. Deze instantie liet de papiermakers hun gang gaan en heeft zeker met genoegen gezien, dat door het graven van talloze sprengen in de 17e en 18e eeuw steeds weer nieuwe aanvragen voor watererfpachten binnen kwamen. Het spreekt vanzelf. dat de papiermakers de nieuwe beekvakken en sprengen, die ze zelf met grote kosten hadden gemaakt, volkomen als hun eigendom beschouwden. Toen men in de Franse periode de rekenkamer ophief werden de erfpachten jarenlang niet geïnd. Nog tijdens het Franse bewind kregen de pachters de gelegenheid hun erfpacht af te kopen. Sommigen hebben dat gedaan, anderen betaalden nog in 1920. de meesten hebben afgewacht zonder te betalen. Er gebeurde echter niets!

Volgens het verpondingsregister over 1648/49 is Jacob Jacobs dan geen papiermaker meer, maar rentenier. De "olde pampiere molen van 5 backen" alsmede de beide later door hem gestichte molens (Hamermolen en Voorslop) zijn vermoedelijk reeds in 1646 eigendom van zijn zoon Daniel Jacobs. In stukken na die tijd wordt de vader telkens als papiermaker aangeduid. Over zijn verschillende activiteiten horen we straks meer. Jacob Jacobs leefde nog op 6 augustus 1652, toen hij hout kocht in het Ugchelse bos. De zoon Daniel Jacobs noemt zich naar zijn moeder Daniel Jacobsen Schut. In 1648 is hij eigenaar en gebruiker van de oude "pampieren molen van 5 backen met huijs en hoff neffens een kampken van 6 schepel . . . Die molen licht opte grond van de Erfg. van Uchelen, gevend jaerlijckschen tot pacht 35 gl. En voor 't water aen de Reeckenkamer f 7".

Op 18 november 1671 krijgt Daniel Jacobs van de rekenkamer de erfpacht van de wind tot een molentje voor het maken van papierstof. De mark geeft hem (13 april 1672) in erfpacht ,,20 voet velts in 't vierkant, behalve de galderij 8 off 9 voet boven de gront waerop door hem een windmolen is geset om lompen te maken, gelegen aen de noordtwest sydt van syn molen den olden molen genaemt daer hij woont". Hij mag in de windmolen "geen huyshoudingh of huyshoudinghen, beesten, schapen off iets ander vee houden."

Daniel Jacobsen Schut was gehuwd met Geertien Janssen. Hij moet omstreeks 1682 zijn overleden, want in dat jaar 112) is sprake van Geertjen Janssen "Weduwe en Boedelhoudersche van Daniel Jacobsen Schut en derselver Erffgenaemen". In 1698 hebben deze erfgenamen - de 5 zoons - de molens verdeeld en gaan apart wonen. De Oude Molen komt dan aan de broers Reynder en Gerrit. Op 1 maart 1698 sluit de mark een akkoord met beide laatstgenoemden, aan wie "de onderste van de drie molens genaemt den Ouden Molen ten deel is gevallen, en waer bij maar ene woning is". Ze krijgen toestemming om de achter het oude woonhuis staande schuur, waarin de moeder destijds gewoond heeft, te verplaatsen "even over de beek aen de noortsyde van voorsyde molen". De broeders zijn echter gehouden die niet groter te maken en bij de nieuwe woning geen hof aan te leggen. De eigenaars - zowel van het oude als van het nieuwe huis - mogen samen niet meer dan 10 beesten, 2 kalveren en 2 paarden hebben. Ook is het niet toegestaan, dat "meer als twee huyshoudingen in die woningen zijn."

Al deze beperkende bepalingen stonden in verband met het feit, dat op de papiermolens "verscheyden huysgezinnen sigh verhielden, dewelken met beesten houwen (= houden) en plaggen en turff te slaen, alsoo te samen de markt gebruyckten tot groot nadeel van de pagters der olthorige landen en erven". We zien hieruit, dat met de gestadige groei der papierindustrie ook een voortdurende toename van de bevolking gepaard ging. Deze uitbreiding van het aantal bewoners der Ugchelsemark, dat meestal zonder vergunning van de markegronden gebruik maakte, gaf telkens aanleiding tot klachten van de zijde der geërfden en andere gerechtigden tot deze gronden.

De grote betekenis, die de papiermakerij voor Ugchelen heeft gehad, blijkt in 1749. Toen moet de welvaart in deze buurschap grotendeels afhankelijk zijn geweest van de uitkomsten van het papierbedrijf. Van de inwoners boven de 10 jaar was in 1749 meer dan 40 % direct betrokken bij de papiernijverheid!

Reynder Daniels Schut, de kleinzoon van Jacob Jacobs, woont nog in 1742 op de Oude Molen, dan treffen we daar in 1747 een neer aan, Daniel Jansen Schut, die in 1749 als ..capitalist" te boek staat. Ieder die 2000 gulden of meer in roerende of onroerende goederen bezat werd toen als kapitalist aangeduid. Dit hield in dat dergelijke personen het dubbele bedrag aan hoofdgeld moesten opbrengen. Daniel Jansen Schut was gehuwd met Steynken van Amersfoort uit een papiermakersgeslacht, dat in 1648 o.a. voorkwam op de Ruitersmolen te Beekbergen.

Hun zoon Arent Klaas Daniels, gehuwd met Hilletje Daniels Schut, zet het bedrijf voort tot ca 4 september 1780, de wed. Hilletje tot omstreeks 1773. Haar zoon Jacob Arents Schut is er nog in 1801. Zijn naam komt voor onder een contract over het ruimen van sprengen in Ugchelen uit 1815, want dit wordt o.a. ondertekend door Jacobus (Arents) Schut als voogd over Maria Schut. We zien uit het bovenstaande dat de afstammelingen van Geertje Schut - als weduwe gehuwd met Marten Orges - bijna twee eeuwen lang papier op Altena hebben gemaakt. Met Jacob Arents Schut verdwijnt de laatste papiermaker Schut uit Ugchelen. De naam Altena is dan inmiddels in gebruik gekomen. Volgens de lijst Gunning zit omstreeks 1812 M. van Delden als papiermaker op "Al te Naar". Dit moet een vergissing zijn, de naam Van Delden klopt hier niet.

In 1859 komt de papierfabrikant Ian Terwel voor op Altena. Hij is gehuwd met Maria Johanna Schut. Het echtpaar heeft drie kinderen: Jacob, Bartje en Anna. Hein Tamboer is knecht, verder werken er de papiermakersknechts Willem Gerritsen, Willem Hermannus Weenink (afkomstig uit Vaassen), Rutger Hagen, Hendrik Slijkhuis en Gerhardus Konijnenberg. Na Terwel zit Johannes Lambertus van Delden op Altena. De papierfabriek wordt daarna omgezet in de nog bestaande wasserij "Altena", nu fa. J. G. Preller en Zoon, Hoenderloseweg 145, Ugchelen. Er bevindt zich nog een sinds lang buiten gebruik gesteld waterrad.

De legende van de "Achterste molen"

Aan de papiermolen Altena is een merkwaardige legende verbonden, die niet onvermeld mag blijven. Deze legende wordt heel juist weergegeven in een "Gids voor Apeldoorn en het Koninklijk Paleis Het Loo en Het Park", uitgegeven in 1877 bij H. J. ter Gunne te Deventer. De schrijvers vertellen hoe zij "bij de achterste papiermolen in Ugchelen" in aanraking kwamen met een landman, die hun de volgende overlevering vertelde van deze molen. "Vroeger, aldus verhaalde hij ons, waren de papiermakers gewoon op zon- en feestdagen hunnen molens stil te zetten. Een vreemdeling, welke dien molen gekocht had, besloot ook des zondags met het maken van lompen tot papierstof door te gaan. Maar zie, den 2den zondagnacht daarop, werd in den molen een helsch leven vernomen en werden zware keien door onzichtbare handen tegen het planken omkleedsel daarvan geslingerd.

Algemene ontsteltenis. Den daarop volgende zondagnacht hetzelfde verschijnsel. Eindelijk besloot men de hulp van den predikant te Beekbergen in te roepen, teneinde den duivel te bezweren. Toen deze daartoe onmachtig bleek te zijn, werd de kapelaan van "de Horst" te Loenen gehaald. Deze kwam, met wijwater en kwast gewapend, en met een grooten zak over den arm trad hij den molen binnen. Het gedruis daarbinnen vermeerderde op eene ontzettende wijze. Eindelijk hield het geweld op en zag men den kapelaan bezweet en afgemat weer te voorschijn komen, met den zak op den rug waarin zich nu een zwaar en levend voorwerp scheen te bevinden. Een groot gejuich ging onder de verzamelde menigte op, daar een ieder overtuigd was, dat de duivel zich in die zak bevond. De kapelaan stapte met zijn zwaren last naar het niet ver van hier verwijderde Ugchelse bos, waar hij aan den duivel de vrijheid terug gaf onder voorwaarde, dat hij wel weder naar de buurtschap terugkeeren, doch die jaarlijks slechts ééne haneschree mocht naderen. Zijne helsche majesteit schijnt zich trouw aan die bepaling te houden, daar hij de papiermakers, die des zondags tegenwoordig allen hunne papiermolens laten doorstampen, sedert dien dag niet lastig is gevallen". Aldus deze legende.

De schrijvers besluiten hun verhaal over Ugchelen als volgt:

"De brug over de beek bij genoemden "achtersten molen" – wij zouden liever zeggen "den eersten molen", daar hij de eerste is der vele fabrieken of molens, die door het water gedreven worden, dat niet ver van deze plaats ontspringt – overgetrokken zijnde, bevinden wij ons weldra in de heide en op een aanzienlijke hoogte, vanwaar men, een blik achterwaarts slaande, een prachtig vergezicht heeft over Ugchelen, Orden, Apeldoorn en de ten westen daarvan gelegen bosschen."

Uit het bovenstaande zou men kunnen opmaken, dat met deze, "achterste molen" het tegenwoordige Voorslop is bedoeld. De legende slaat dan niet op Altena, maar op het Voorslop. Volgens Moerman, de beste kenner der Ugchelse molens, heeft het verhaal echter te maken met de molen Altena. De hier genoemde "aanzienlijke hoogte" is natuurlijk de Bakenberg.

In welke tijd zich deze gebeurtenis op de "achterste molen" kan hebben afgespeeld wordt ons niet verteld. Er bestaan verschillende lezingen, die niet met elkaar kloppen. In de meeste gevallen wordt de vreemdeling, die de molen kocht, met name genoemd. Hij staat dan steeds als Wettink bekend. Oude ingezetenen konden in het Ugchelse bos nog een plek aanwijzen, die bekend stond als "Wettinksbosje". Er moet een historische achtergrond aan deze geschiedenis ten grondslag liggen en een werkelijke Wettink bestaan hebben, maar deze naam zijn we op geen der molens daar in de omgeving tegengekomen.

De Hamermolen (kaart 1 nr. 36)

Jacobs blijkt een ondernemend man te zijn. Hij stelt alles in 't werk om zijn produktie te vergroten. In 1636 krijgt hij van de rekenkamer de erfpacht van zekere "beeckskens ende stranckskens off well" en op 7 december 1639 het waterrecht van een "beecksken bequaem sijnde om een kleijn pampiermoelentgen daer op te leggen". Jacobs moet hiervoor een jaarlijkse pacht geven van 5 gulden. Dit alles slaat op het stichten van "het Hamermolentje", dat boven zijn Oude Molen kwam te liggen. De hier genoemde "beeckskens ende stranckskens off well" zullen de tegenwoordige Koppel- of Blekerssprengen zijn, die door Jacobs door het graven van sprengen toen zijn verbeterd. Van het "beecksken" uit 1639 wordt gezegd, dat het liep langs "seecker" land, dat hij gepacht had van de geërfden van Ugchelen. Eerder hebben we verteld, dat het stroomde door de laagte ten oosten van Altena. Jacobs had tot nog toe geen profijt gehad van dit water, want het kwam alleen ten goede aan de Windemolen en alle lager gelegen molens. Toen hij in 1639 de erfpacht over dit beekje had verkregen, heeft Jacob Jacobs op vernuftige wijze gebruik gemaakt van een lange lage rug aan de linkerzijde van de beek, die net bij Altena eindigt, en waar de nieuwe loop prachtig langs en doorheen geleid kon worden. Hierdoor waren er maar weinig kostbare zodendijken nodig en was het mogelijk de bovenbeek grotendeels in de vaste grond uit te graven, hetgeen de kans op waterverlies door lekkage veel minder maakte. Door dit alles sloeg Jacob Jacobs een aantal vliegen in één klap. Hij had zich verzekerd van het recht op bijna alle bovengelegen waterlopen en daardoor de beschikking gekregen over de zenuwen van het bedrijf (de sprengen). Hierdoor was hij niet alleen zeker van een regelmatige watertoevoer naar zijn molen(s), maar tevens kregen anderen in de toekomst geen kans meer zich boven hem te nestelen en daar papiermolens te stichten met alle mogelijke nadelen daaraan verbonden. Verder verschafte hij zich een nieuwe wateraanvoer van de andere kant erbij op zijn Oude Molen (Altena), die tot nu toe uitsluitend gedreven werd door het water, dat van de zijde van het (toen nog niet bestaande) Voorslop kwam. Tenslotte was hij in staat een tweede papiermolentje (het latere Hamermolentje) te bouwen. Straks zullen we zien, dat Jacob Jacobs, die niet eens kon schrijven, kans zag in de buurt zelfs een derde molen te stichten. Voorlopig moet het Hamermolentie, meestal het ...clevne" molentie of ...Nieuwe Mooltie" genoemd, uitsluitend gebruikt zijn voor het slaan van papierstof, waardoor de produktie op de Oude Molen verhoogd kon worden.

Op 28 juli 1646 krijgt Daniel Jacobsen Schut, de zoon van Jacob Jacobs, van de rekenkamer het recht op "seeckere verlooren waterkens lopende langs en van de huijsen tot in het voorss. beeckken daer sijnen moelen opleijt". Daniel betaalt voor deze "inlopende Strangetjens" een jaarlijkse erfpacht van slechts 1 gulden, hetgeen duidt op tamelijk onbelangrijke waterloopjes. Blijkbaar is dan de molen niet meer in 't bezit van Jacob Jacobs, maar eigendom van zijn zoon Daniël Jacobsen (Schut). Want in 1648 staat Jacob Jacobs "pampiermaecker" niet te boek voor een molen, doch wordt vermeld als eigenaar en gebruiker van een huis en een hof van een schepel. Volgens het markeboek der Ugchelse Mark betaalt zijn zoon Daniël Jacobsz in 1659 de erfpacht van de "cleyne" molen over de jaren 54, 55, 56 en 57.

Na het overlijden van Daniël Jacobsen Schut (ca. 1682) komt de Hamermolen in het bezit van diens zoon Jochem (1695). Van de Hamermolen als afzonderlijk bedrijf is niets te ontdekken, eerst in 1798 betaalt Peter van Asselt 5 gulden voor de molen. Deze Peter was daarvoor papiermaker geweest op Tullekensmolen in Beekbergen (1794). Een contract uit 1815 over het opmaken, ruimen en onderhouden der "nieuwe Moolsche sprengen alsmede de kleine koppelsprengen en de windemools zogenaamd de Roojans sprengen" wordt o.a. ondertekend door Peter van Asselt en Arend Klaas van Asselt, papiermakers op "de nieuwe Moolen". Blijkbaar is de benaming Hamermolen dan nog niet in zwang. Nu is het vreemd, dat Peter en Klaas van Asselt wel meebetalen voor het onderhoud der "nieuwe Moolsche sprengen", maar niet voor dat van de "kleine Koppelsprengen". Wat waren deze "nieuwe Moolsche" sprengen, die toen het water voor het molenrad van de Hamermolen leverden en waarom liepen de Koppelsprengen in die tijd niet tevens op de molen?

Het contract van 1815 is gesloten tussen de eigenaars van de navolgende papier-molens: Hamermolen (Nieuwe Molen), Altena, Windemolens, Bazemolens, Hattemse-molens en Tiemensmolens. Het Voorslop had eigen beheer over zijn sprengen. Volgens de opstellers van het contract waren toen de genoemde drie sprengenstelsels in groot verval geraakt, hetgeen aanmerkelijke schade opleverde voor de gebruikers der betreffende molens. Voortaan zullen deze de kosten van ruimen en opmaken der sprengen gezamenlijk dragen. Eenmaal per jaar moeten de boven- en onderbeken geruimd worden en wel op twee dagen, namelijk op vrijdag en zaterdag, acht dagen vóór Deventer kermis. Het schouwen zal geschieden door daartoe aangewezen gecommitteerden. Het riet moet er "voor de voet" zijn uitgemaakt, het in 't water hangende

Merk op de riemkap van Gebrs. Berends, papierfabrikanten op de molen Steenbeek (Hist. Museum Moerman).

- 4. Gerritje Berends van Loenen, wed. van Lammert Dijkgraaf (de Bazemolen, vooraan liggende)
- 5. Willem Uyt den Boogaard Gerrits zoon (de Bazemolen, achteraan liggende)
- 6. Dirk Kamphuis Senior (Hattem, de Koopmansmolen, d.i. Methusalem)
- 7. Elberta Geertruida van Tongeren, wed. van Rutger van Zeist (Hattum, de Schutsmolen)
- 8. Willem Uyt den Bogaard Evertszoon en Cornelis Uyt den Boogaard (Hattum, de Bouwhofmolen)
- 9. Albert Cornelissen (de Tiemensmolen, vooraanliggende)
- 10. Dirk Kamphuis Jr. (de Tiemensmolen, achteraanliggende).

Van alle kosten ten behoeve der Nieuwe Molensche- en der Kleine Koppelsprengen gedaan, betaalt ieder een gelijk tiende deel. We lezen verder, dat in de kosten van het ruimen en schoonhouden der sprengen van het Voorslop, eigenaar de heer A. van Houtum Jzn., zowel de eigenaar als een ieder "onderteekenaar dezer akte of opvolger van een gelijk deel" bijdraagt, Wat het Roojan betreft betalen alleen degenen, die van dit water profiteren. In een latere aantekening zonder jaartal staat dat de Roojansprengen zijn "dichtgemaakt". Natuurlijk was de kleur van het ijzerhoudende water voor de wasbedrijven minder geschikt. Het is merkwaardig, dat in 1908 nog altijd gesproken wordt van de "Nieuwe Molensche" sprengen, hoewel op de plek van het voormalige Hamertje al sinds geruime tijd geen bedrijf meer lag. Pas na 1910 werd daar een wasserij gebouwd, "De Hamermolen", Hoenderloseweg 155, die waterrecht moest betalen aan de eigenaren der bovengelegen sprengen. Tot voor enige jaren draaide er nog een klein ijzeren waterrad, dat dienst deed voor de compressor. De Hamermolen was toen de enige wasserij in de gemeente Apeldoorn, die van waterkracht gebruik maakte. De wasserij "De Hamermolen" is inmiddels opgeheven, doch het waterrad hangt thans (1967) nog altijd beneden de molengoot.

De Nieuwe of Bovenste Molen, later het Voorslop (kaart 1 nr. 37)

See deed.

In 1644 zet de papiermaker Jacob Jacobs de kroon op het werk door dichtbij zijn twee reeds bestaande molens in Ugchelen nog een derde molen te timmeren, het latere Voorslop. Op 10 oktober 1644 tekenen Jacob Jacobs en zijn vrouw Jenneken Reijntgens een stuk, waarin zij verklaren van de geërfden van de Ugchelse mark in erfpacht ontvangen te hebben "een ledige plaetse van omtrent een mudde gesays landts opte Ugcheler beek boven onsen muelen gelegen, om aldaer enen nijewen doch gheen Coornmuelen te setten". Bovendien nog "stijff twee mudden geseys landts tusschen 't Uchgelensche beeksken ende 't kleijne hull achter onsen camp genaemt Bartolts camp om tot landt aen te graeven". Deze Bartolts kamp, geheten "Het Hoge Hull", had Jacobs destijds gekocht van de erfgenamen van Anna Bartols. Jacob Jacobs en zijn vrouw verwijzen vervolgens naar de door de geërfden van Ugchelen op 23 februari 1641 uitgegeven erfpachtbrief. Daarin staat, dat door de mark aan hen in erfpacht was uitgedaan "een ledige plaetse van omtrent een mudde geseijts landts opte Uchgeller beeck, genaemt die Steenbeek, boven der Eheluyden muelen gelegen, om aldaer een nijeuwen pampieren off anderen muelen (doch gheenen koirnmuelen)

Teunisje Remembers

In 1969, when she was seventy-three, Tillie wrote her memories of her life in the family of eight boys and eight girls of which she was the eldest child. I have edited her writings so as not to be repetitious.

Twice a year Mother had a thorough housecleaning including whitewashing the house. She put bluing in it to make it whiter.

We had an oval-shaped table which we had to clean after every meal with soap and sand.

During the fall, Dad would buy one hundred pounds of carrots, nice big ones weighing about a pound each. Every evening after our meal he would tell us to get one carrot from the cellar which he would then clean and cut into pieces for all of us. After this treat we went to bed. When we went to the United States everyone told us we had rosy cheeks!

I was paid a two and one-half dollar piece when I learned how to milk.

I started to school at age seven and went six years. We all wore wooden shoes to school which we had to scrub each night with soap sand, and a brush...inside and out. We wore the same clothes on each day for the school week and I was especially able to keep clean all week. Most of the teachers were men and I was "teachers pet". I was also so good at playing marbles that I won all the other children's and had one thousand!

It was luck I hit the marbles and the per thought I cheated and didn't like me.

After school was out we had to go straight home to work. We had to plant potatoes or whatever there was to do. Father raised rye so we made our own rye bread.

In the six week school vacation I spent my entire time knitting stockings for my little brothers and sisters.

We went to the same church that Queen Wilhelmina attended We could wear our leather shoes only on Sunday.

All the children loved the queen. We had a picture of her in our home. On the queen's birthday, she had a feast for the school children. She gave all the girls a necklace with her picture in it. Some boy pulled mine off my neck and I was really upset.

Our parents owned a small body of water and we made sailboats out of old wooden shoes with sails being rags tied to sticks.

In the winter when the water froze, we would go ice skating.

Grandmother lived about a mile across the field and often my feet traveled to that place where Grandmother had beautiful flowers and delicious berries.

When I was thirteen I went to work cleaning house for a lady. I rode my bicycle there in the morning but was scared when I had to come home in the dark with only a bike light to guide me. I was paid seventy-five cents for a day's work and gave my earnings to Mother.

Dad promised his mother that in ten years he would come back to see her but in nine years he received word that she had passed on, so he never went back.

I was fifteen years old when we left the city of Rotterdam at one A.M. When we awoke, we could see nothing but water, sky, and doves.

Mother and a brother were sea sick.

It took us two weeks to get to New York. (I did not want to get off the ship because I had started liking one of the sailors.)

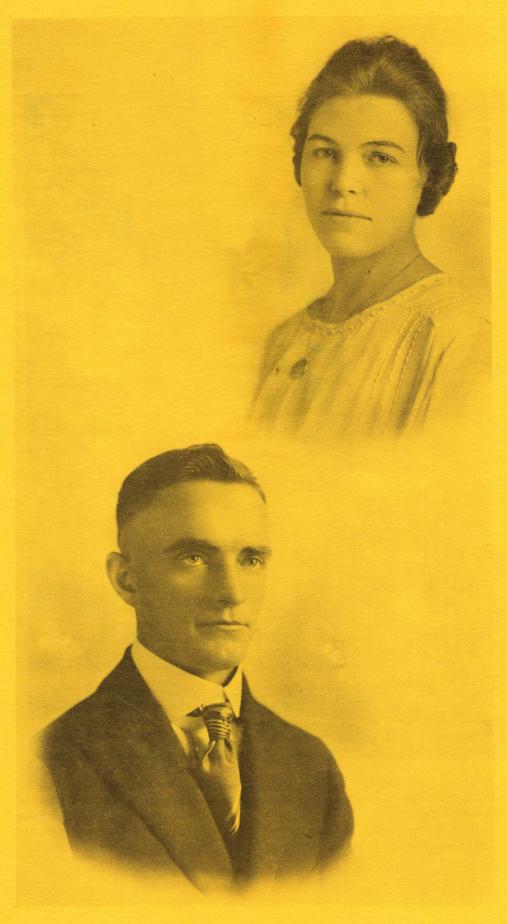

I got homesick for my family when I worked away from home in the United States but used my earnings to buy things for Mother such as sugar, a rocking chair and an alarm clock.

My people all belong to the Dutch Christian Reformed Church but I belong to the Church of Christ.

We count it a blessing that we were raised the way we were.

mrs tillie van raeveren

Hattie Van Kooten and John Van Arkel taken in the early 1900's.

This is Grote Kerk located in Apeldoorn which was attended by Hendrik and Cornelia Van Kooten and where their Dutch-born children were baptized. It is the church which was attended by Her Majesty Queen Wilhelmina and which is still the church attended by the Royal Family when they are at the summer palace in 't Loo. The picture was loaned to us by Jennie (Mrs. Cornelius) Van Kooten of Sully.

An interesting story about the marriage (s) of Berdena Van Kooten and Jacob Van Kampen is told in this writing by Berdena.

"Before my marriage my parents home was just across the Jasper County line. We were living in Poweshiek County. My boyfriend, Jake, at this time not knowing this, applied for the marriage license in the court house in Jasper County (Newton, Ia.)

When the neighbors read about the marriage license applied for in the Newton Daily Herald they told Jake he could not get married tomorrow. Jake took this all as a joke at first. Then he thought maybe he should tell his dad. His father said, 'Maybe best we talk to the pastor about this as we were to get married the next day at one-thirty in the afternoon in the home of my parents. Rev. Ralph Bolt being our pastor said, 'I don't think you can but I will call the banker Cornie Welle.'

The next morning at nine Rev. Bolt called us by phone telling us we have to come to the parsonage in Sully. There we were married at ten o'clock. In the afternoon we were married, as planned earlier, at one—thirty in my parents' home near Searsboro, Iowa...being married twice in one day! (And by the same minister!) Now we knew we were legally married and we lived happily ever after."

The groom had bought the license
And thought everything was fine,
Then he learned that it was not legal
The other side of the county line.

So they went to the preacher that morning And were legally married that way, Later, at the bride's home was the wedding -They were married twice the same day!

The material printed in this book was originally compiled for the little boy pictured here...so that when he is grown, he can appreciate his paternal family's heritage. I have taken the liberty to dedicate the book to him as his maternal grandmother. The time effort I have spent for the Van Kooten family is in young Klint Adam Kooyman's behalf.
